On March 20, 1973, Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] Miami, telephonically advised Special Agent [redacted] that he and SA [redacted] should not proceed to Miami on this date as scheduled for testimony at a suppression hearing on March 21, 1973.

Assistant United States Attorney [] had requested SA's [] and [] be present at a suppression hearing in the above case in Miami on March 21, 1973. SA's [] and [] were available, however, SA [] was in Sacramento, California in a prior commitment. Under these circumstances Assistant United States Attorney [] advised that she had decided to only present the Laboratory report at the hearing. She felt that if the defense refused to accept the report the presence of only two of the examiners would also be challenged. Therefore, SA's [] and [] should not appear in Miami on March 21, 1973, for the hearing.

SA's [redacted] and [redacted] were previously committed for testimony at the trial scheduled for March 26, 1973. This commitment is still valid. Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] stated she would advise the Bureau immediately of change in this commitment.

(BUFILE: 100-469538)

PURPOSE:

To advise that Assistant U. S. Attorney (AUSA), Miami, Florida, has requested Special Agent (SA) [redacted] who is assigned to the Miami Office, be present at the counsel table throughout the trial of captioned subjects, which is scheduled to commence 3/26/73, Miami, Florida.

BACKGROUND:

Forcade, a prominent leader of the "Zippies" (an offshoot of the Youth International Party, a loosely-knit, antiestablishment, revolutionary organization), during the Republican National Convention, Miami Beach, Florida, and his close associate Cindy Ornsteen were indicted by a Federal Grand Jury, Miami, Florida, on 2/8/73 and charged with possession, unlawful manufacture and nonregistration of two fire bombs. These fire bombs were found by local police in the cab of a truck which was occupied by Forcade and Ornsteen. Their trial date has been scheduled for 3/26/73, in U. S. District Court, Southern District of Florida, Miami, Florida.

The prosecution of this matter is being handled by AUSA [redacted] who, on 3/20/73, requested through our Miami Office the presence of SA [redacted] at the counsel table throughout the trial of captioned subjects. This request is based on the familiarity of SA [redacted] with all facets of this complicated case. SA [redacted] assigned to the Miami Division, is the Case Agent of this investigation and SAC, Miami, has advised on UACB basis that SA [redacted] will be authorized to sit at the counsel table as requested.

Intelligence Division concurs with the decision of the SAC, Miami.

2 Yippies Charged With Having Bombs Are Freed on Bail

Two writers for the Underground Press Syndicate were released on bail here yesterday on charges of possessing fire bombs during the Republican National Convention in Miami Beach last August.

Both are members of the Youth International party, known as the Yippies, and both are scheduled for arraignment on the Federal charges in Miami on Thursday. They denied the charges after their arrests here on Saturday as a result of their indictment in Florida.

One defendant is Thomas K. Forcade, 27 years old, who was released on a $50,000 personal recognizance bond secured by $2,500 in cash. His mother, Mrs. Laura Goodson, posted the bail for him in Phoenix, Ariz., where she lives.

The other defendant, Cindy Ornstein, 24, was released in the custody of her parents after they signed an unsecured $50,000 personal recognizance bond for her. The parents, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Ornstein, came to the court here from their home in Gladwyne, Pa.

A spokesman for the Yippies, denying that the defendants had possessed any explosive devices, said there had been a container of gasoline in a sound truck. He said the gasoline was used to power a loudspeaker.

The Underground Press Syndicate issued a statement calling the indictment "totally false" and contending it was "part of an ongoing assault by the Government on the press in general and radical underground journalists in particular." The syndicate is an association of underground newspapers and magazines.

PURPOSE:

To advise trial of Forcade and Ornsteen, who were indicted 2/8/73 for possession, unlawful manufacture and nonregistration of 2 fire bombs, is scheduled in U. S. District Court, Miami, Florida, on 3/26/73.

BACKGROUND:

Forcade, a prominent leader of the "Zippies" (an offshoot of the Youth International Party, a loosely-knit, antiestablishment, revolutionary organization), during the Republican National Convention, Miami Beach, Florida, was stopped on 8/23/72 by local police while driving a truck loaded with a rock band and a number of "Zippies" to the convention site and was arrested for not having a driver's license. The cab of the truck contained 3 cans which appeared to be incendiary devices. These items were submitted to the FBI Laboratory by our Miami Office for examination and the material from 2 of the cans was found to be combustible and easily ignited with a violent, spontaneous reaction.

Forcade and Ornsteen were arrested by FBI Agents 2/10/73 in New York City, released on bond, appeared for arraignment in Miami, Florida, 2/15/73, where they entered a plea of not guilty to the charges and their trial date set for 3/26/73, in U. Interviews of police officers who were present at the arrest scene, the witnesses on the truck at the time of Forcade's arrest and of Ornsteen at the time of her arrest have developed conflicting statements as to the third person in the cab of the truck with Forcade and Ornsteen. The police officers, Ornsteen and one witness on the truck claim that [redacted] was the third person, while [redacted] and 4 others stated that [redacted] was the third person in the truck with Forcade and Ornsteen. In view of this contradiction, Assistant U. S. Attorney and Departmental Attorney have advised no further indictments being sought in this matter at this time. U

A motion to suppress the physical evidence obtained from the truck by local police and the statement of Ornsteen furnished to FBI Agents at the time of her arrest has been made by the defense and, in this regard, a hearing has been scheduled for 3/21/73 at Miami, Florida. U

[redacted] Central District Motorcycle Division, Dade County Public Safety Department, was interviewed and furnished the following information:

[redacted] was advised that he was being interviewed to clarify certain elements of an incident which took place on August 23, 1972, during the Republican National Convention at Miami Beach, Florida. [redacted] stated that he recalled the incident in which he and two other motorcycle officers stopped a rental truck on Meridian Avenue and Lincoln Road in the vicinity of the Convention Center at Miami Beach, Florida. [redacted] was shown a "photograph of a stake truck which shows a white female sitting in the cab of the truck." Regarding this photograph, [redacted] was asked whether he recognized the white male with bushy shoulder length hair and mustache who appears in the approximate center of the photograph. [redacted] stated that he did recognize this individual as being a passenger in the cab of the aforementioned vehicle and that this person in the photograph was sitting on the passenger side of the cab. He stated this was what he observed when the truck had been stopped on August 23, 1972. He advised, however, that he did not know what this individual's name was.

[redacted] was interviewed at [redacted] Louisville, Kentucky, where he is currently employed as [redacted]. He furnished the following information:

BORN [redacted] N.Y.

During the period of the Republican National Convention held in Miami, Florida, during 1972, he was residing at the residence of [redacted] Miami, Florida 33114, and had occasion to witness some of the activities surrounding the convention itself.

He was instrumental in the formation of [redacted] which corporation was formed in connection with a rock group known as "The Goats", and which group later changed its name to "The Dixie Outlaws." He was a stockholder in the corporation but did not purchase stock as such. He paid some of the expenses of the rock group and received the equivalent of expenses paid in stock.

The leader of the rock group was a person known to him as [redacted] who conceived the idea to rent a flatbed truck for use during the Republican National Convention held in Miami during 1972. The intention was to rent a flatbed truck, decorate it and equip it such that it could be used as a publicity gimmick for the rock group.

Just prior to the Republican National Convention, he and [redacted] rented a flatbed truck from Ryder Truck Rental, Northwest 20th Street, Miami, Florida. [redacted] signed for the truck as leader of the rock group, and he paid the rental expense by use of his Master Charge credit card.

They also went to a Hertz Rental Office, located off of the Palmetto Expressway near 36th Street where they rented a generator which was to be used on the flatbed truck in connection with the operation of floodlights. The generator itself was rented by [redacted] also. At the time of renting the generator, they also purchased a gasoline can as the generator operated on gasoline. The can itself was flat on both the top and bottom. It was a rounded can and had a

For about the next forty-eight hours or so, the truck remained stationary while it was being constructed as a show piece for the rock group. The name of the rock group was affixed to the truck itself, the floodlights were installed, an awning was attached to the truck, and other preparations were made so that the band could play from the flatbed portion of the truck and receive as much publicity as possible. Sometime around the beginning of the Republican National Convention, he was introduced to TOM FORCADE by [redacted] FORCADE was introduced to him as a member of the news media and indicated that he could be instrumental in seeing that the rock group received publicity during the Republican National Convention. Largely through FORCADE's efforts, the rock group was able to play an opening concert at Flamingo Park. He, himself, attended this concert. The truck itself was driven on this occasion by [redacted]

Later on during the week, the truck was used on a second occasion to play a concert on Washington Street. He was not present on this occasion. The truck was then stored at his Miami address for a couple of days until the rock group played a third concert in the same area where the second concert was played on Washington Street. He was also not present during this concert.

The day after the Republican National Convention ended, the truck was returned to Ryder Truck Rental, having served its purpose as a publicity vehicle.

Sometime during the course of the week, he was introduced to CHEDY GINSBERG by FORCADE. This was a very casual acquaintance only, as was his acquaintanceship with FORCADE. He had never met either of these two persons prior to the Republican National Convention and has not seen them since.

At no time during the convention did he see any vegetable type cans, wicks, wax, or oil cans. He did not participate in any demonstrations in connection with the Republican National Convention and was present on only one occasion when the rental truck was actually being used by the rock group, and this was during the first concert played by the group in Flamingo Park. On this occasion, he attended merely as an observer.

He reiterated that his association with FORCADE and OANSTEEN was very casual and he is unable to furnish any information in connection with their activities during the Republican National Convention from personal knowledge.

On each occasion that the rock group utilized the rental truck during the Republican National Convention, authorization to perform had been obtained from appropriate officials in the Miami area.

MM 100-16625

On March 21, 1973, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] Miami, Florida, advised that a hearing was held on a motion to suppress the evidence on March 21, 1973 in U.S. District Court, Miami, Florida, before the Honorable Judge PETER T. FAY. The motion was denied and the trial in this case was set for 9:00 a.m., March 29, 1973. However, on March 22, 1973, she advised the trial date was now scheduled for 9:00 a.m., March 28, 1973.

In connection with the motion for suppression of evidence hearing held in U.S. District Court from March 21, 1973, the issue was brought up as to the affidavit obtained by AUSA [redacted] relative to an electronic surveillance pertaining to THOMAS KING FORCADE and CINDY ORNSTEEN. In this connection, it was noted that the defense claimed the affidavit was inadequate. It was noted that the defense indicated the affidavit received from the Justice Department did not contain sufficient information to the effect that there was nothing indicating the attorneys had not been under the electronic surveillance. AUSA [redacted] indicated to the court that the affidavit would be corrected to include whatever is necessary and she would immediately get in touch with the Justice Department. At the hearing the defense objected to the affidavit relative to an electronic surveillance received from the Dade County Public Safety Department, Miami, Florida, indicating that the months of May and June had not been included and here again AUSA [redacted] advised the court that this would be changed and corrected and a new affidavit obtained covering those months.

At the hearing it was agreed by the court, the defense counsel, and prosecution, that the defense attorney should have the opportunity to examine and photograph the evidence but that the photographs could not be taken in the building. It was also agreed that the defense would be entitled to have an expert of their own examine the evidence in this case and the defense stated that this could probably be arranged for Monday, March 26, 1973, or Tuesday, March 27, 1973, at Miami. It was also stipulated that such examination would have to be done in the presence of SA [redacted] In view of the above matters, the court agreed to relinquish the evidence to SA [redacted] although it had actually been accepted by the court.

On March 22, 1973, [redacted] who was accompanied by CINDY ORNSTEEN, appeared at the Miami Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for the purpose of examining and photographing the physical evidence in this case. The evidence was taken down to the reception room by SAs [redacted] and [redacted] at which time they joined [redacted] and CINDY ORNSTEEN and went to the rear parking lot area. The can and evidence were then removed from the plastic containers for the purpose of photographing. It is noted that [redacted] was trying to use a Polaroid camera and the film became stuck and she was unable to take pictures. It was noted that CINDY ORNSTEEN had a small Kodak type camera and did take a few photographs. Also at this time [redacted] was permitted to take measurements of the evidence in question. The items photographed and measured were the "Allstate gasoline can" and the three small cans containing wax like substance. This took place from about 10:10 a.m. to approximately 10:40 a.m. At the conclusion, [redacted] and CINDY ORNSTEEN left the parking lot indicating they wanted to go to a public telephone to call some store where the film might be developed for them within 24 hours. SAs [redacted] and [redacted] then went upstairs with the evidence.

WHEN THE ATTORNEYS WENT TO THE BENCH TO DISCUSS INSTRUCTIONS BY THE JUDGE TO THE JURY THE DEFENSE ATTORNEYS RENEWED THEIR MOTION FOR ACQUITTAL.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 3/30/73

This relates to Thomas King Forcade, a prominent leader of the "Zippies" during the Republican National Convention, Miami Beach, Florida, and his close associate Cindy Ornstein, who were both indicted by a Federal Grand Jury, 2/8/73, for possession of two unlawfully made and non-registered destructive devices commonly known as fire bombs. Evidence came from local police arrest of Forcade and others on traffic charge at which time the alleged incendiary devices were seized. Facts surrounding arrest presented to Department who felt violation of National Firearms Act existed. Their trial commenced 3/28/73 in U. S. District of Florida, Miami, Florida.

Government rested its case late afternoon, 3/28/73, and defense presented its case morning of 3/29/73. Main issue was type of evidence and whether considered incendiary or fire bomb within statute.

On 3/29/73, Judge Peter Fay, after arguments by counsel, granted motion of acquittal on ground that he did not feel that any reasonable interpretation could be made which would bring the evidence in this case within the scope of National Firearms Act.

On March 28, 1973. Special Agents [redacted]

[redacted] and [redacted] testified in U. S. District Court, Miami, Florida, concerning evidence examined in the Laboratory from the referenced case. The trial was presided over by the Honorable Peter T. Fry. The prosecution was handled by AUSA [redacted]. The defendant Forcade was represented by [redacted] and the defendant Ornsteen was represented by [redacted].

This case concerned an incident that occurred in Miami during the Republican Convention in August 1972. The defendants were stopped by the Miami Police Department for a traffic violation while driving a truck loaded with Yippies and a rock band group. In connection with this violation three small metal cans containing match heads embedded in a suspicious material suggestive of incendiary devices, along with a can containing liquid suspected of being gasoline were recovered from the truck. These items were examined in the Laboratory and a report submitted to the Miami Office of the FBI. The defendants were indicted by a Grand Jury for violation of the National Firearms Act.

SA [redacted] testified that the liquid recovered from the can on the defendants' truck was gasoline and that one of the recovered cans contained only wax with a charred stick protruding from the wax which served as a wick.

SA [] testified that the contents of two of the cans consisted of a potassium nitrate and sugar mixture and burned easily when ignited.

SA [] testified that he field tested samples of the potassium nitrate and sugar mixtures and found them to burn readily. He further testified that the device could be used as incendiary devices to ignite combustible materials. On a direct question from AUSA [] as to whether or not the open cans containing the potassium nitrate and sugar mixtures were bombs SA [] testified that the items were not bombs in their present condition.

It is noted that the defense had retained their own expert to conduct an analysis of the items that were submitted to the FBI Laboratory. Their expert was [] the Forensic Science Program at Elmira College, Elmira, New York. He was allowed to use the facilities of the Miami Public Safety Laboratory for his examinations. It is of interest that his results agreed with the results of the FBI Laboratory report and he testified that he merely confirmed the FBI Laboratory results.

It was learned upon return of the Laboratory Examiners to Washington, D. C. that Judge Fry had ordered a verdict of acquittal prior to giving the case to the jury on the basis that the Government had failed to meet all the elements of the violation under which the defendants were charged.

Activist Freed of Bomb Counts

A federal judge in Miami has thrown out possession of firebomb charges against radical activist Tom Forcade, 27, arrested during antiwar demonstrations against the Republican National Convention in Miami Beach last summer.

Judge Peter Fay ruled during Forcade's trial Thursday that the federal firearms statute under which Forcade was charged was not intended to cover the devices police say they discovered in a truck driven by Forcade in downtown Miami Beach on Aug. 23. The devices were described as two cans with an incendiary mixture of potassium nitrate and sugar and a number of matches inserted in each.

Charges against Cindy Orns-teen, 24, a codefendant with Forcade, were also thrown out.

MM 100-16625

On March 29, 1973, the Honorable Judge PETER FAY, U.S. District Court, Miami, Florida, after arguments by counsel, granted the Motion of Acquittal for both THOMAS KING FORCADE and CINDY ORNSTEEN on the basis that he did not feel any responsible interpretation could be made as to the evidence and the testimony that would bring these items within the definition of the Federal statute. He mentioned Section 5845 (F). Judge FAY, therefore, as a matter of law, declared both defendants not guilty on both counts.

Judge FAY turned over the item of evidence described as a can with a wax-like mixture with a wick in it and a cigarette butt snuffed out on it to CINDY ORNSTEEN at the request of her counsel, [redacted] after court was dismissed and CINDY ORNSTEEN departed the court room with this item.

On April 5, 1973, Assistant U.S. Attorney [redacted] [redacted] advised that the Justice Department was currently considering appealing the decision by Judge PETER FAY. She indicated that this appeal would be a "matter of law" and that normally such an appeal would be filed by the Government within a period of 30 days after the court decision. It was noted that Judge FAY had rendered a Motion for Acquittal on March 29, 1973.

[redacted] also stated that the evidence in this case, with the exception of the item described as a can containing a wax-like substance with a wick and snuffed out cigarette butt in it which had been turned over to CINDY ORNSTEEN, would be retained in the custody of the Deputy Court Clerk, U.S. District Court, Miami, Florida. AUSA

[redacted] advised that the matter of law in this case appeared to be the interpretation that Judge FAY had made relative to the indictments and the National Firearms Act and statutes involved. She advised that the indictments read as follows:

MM 100-16625

COUNT ONE

On or about August 23, 1972, in the Southern District of Florida, at Miami Beach, Florida,

THOMAS KING FORCADE
and CINDY ORNSTEEN
aka Anastasia Sirroco

COUNT TWO

On or about August 23, 1972, in the Southern District of Florida, at Miami Beach, Florida

THOMAS KING FORCADE
and CINDY ORNSTEEN
aka Anastasia Sirroco

knowingly possessed firearms, that is, destructive devices, commonly known as firebombs, consisting of cans with a wax-like mixture of potassium nitrate and sugar with matches inserted in the mixture which had not been registered to either of them in the National Firearms Registration and Transfer Record as required by Chapter 53, Title 26, United States Code; in violation of Title 26, Sections 5861(d) and 5871, United States Code.

Assistant U.S. Attorney [redacted] Miami, indicated that the interpretation apparently came about as to what the word "firebombs" meant in the indictments.

Re Miami airtel to Bureau, dated 5/3/73.

On 5/24/73, AUSA [redacted] Miami, Fla., advised that relative to the appeal of the case with the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, New Orleans, Louisiana, she had been talking on the telephone with the Solicitor General. She stated that she was, in effect, orally advised by that office that there would not be an appeal and she was merely waiting for a confirmation letter, which would enable her to ask for its dismissal with the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals. She stated she should probably get this within a few days.

NT
GINSBERG IS A LIAR

Dear Straight:

Just received your last issue. I'm afraid you have been made the victim of a very cleverly contrive put-on, because I don't give a flying fuck what Ginsberg says and wouldn't bet him ten cents on it. I guess I agree with the sentiments of the letter, but it would be ridiculous to deny the Ginsberg statement. It's true that I don't care for Hoffman, Rubin or Dellinger's behavior. So what? A guy like Ginsberg would never respond to a cheapshot move like the one you printed.

The real question is, why are you so willing to run personal attacks. When Cindy and I were facing 20 years, on $50,000 bail each, on similar charges to the VVAW Gainesville 8, you ran almost nothing. But if some idiot calls Ginsberg a liar, you give it headlines. The only American who never lied was George Washington. Get your head together. Ginsberg's o.k.

Thomas Forcade

PS. Incidentally, what the hell was Ginsberg doing taping people's conversations? Sounds like Nixon. I don't care if he doesn't have the tape. But if he does have the tape, the question is why?

Sincerely,

Ginsberg's o.k.

NOTE:

In January, 1972, [] furnished information that subject, who was then affiliated with the underground press syndicate in New York, stated he was trying to obtain a White House press pass and if allowed to enter The White House he would conceal a gun in his camera and shoot the President. This information was immediately relayed to U. S. Secret Service and was the basis for that Service refusing subject a White House press pass. Forcade has since brought suit against Secret Service concerning this matter. In anticipation of questions to be raised by subject's attorney, Secret Service in referenced letter requested: will the Bureau pose any objection to Secret Service stating that information came from a FBI informant, current status of this informant, and whether or not identity of informant can now be divulged? Authority was granted to designate source as a PSI May, 1971. Since that time he furnished an extensive amount of valuable information concerning New Left and related matters in the Detroit area. He was discontinued November, 1973, as he was no longer in a position to furnish such information nor was it his wish to continue to operate in an informant capacity.

Source declined to testify strictly on the basis of his personal safety and his own best interests. In view of source's close ties with known "militants", Detroit feels source's fears are justified and his decision sound.

For information, source advised he is still in contact with many people with whom the FBI has an interest and he is still contacted frequently for advice by persons still in the "movement". He stated he does not object to working for the creased so much, he questions his own usefulness. This matter

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

New York, New York
February 15, 1974

Thomas King Forcade

On February 13, 1974, a representative of the United States Secret Service, 90 Church Street, New York City (NYC), New York (NY), telephonically contacted a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in NYC and advised of the following:

At 12:00 noon on February 13, 1974, United States Secret Service, NYC, received a telephone complaint from an anonymous individual who stated that Tom Forcade who resides at 283 West 11th Street, NYC, in the basement office space of the Alternate Press Syndicate (APS), is involved in the purchase and sale of marijuana and LSD. The individual stated that Forcade travels to the southern part of the United States often and returns to New York with from 25 to 100 pounds of the previously mentioned narcotics on each occasion. He, thereafter, sells the drugs to other individuals in the village area of NYC. The individual further advised that Forcade has an undisclosed amount of firearms in his residence on most occasions. The individual concluded by advising that he believed Secret Service would be interested in the above information.

The representative of Secret Service who contacted the FBI advised that his agency has had a prior interest in Forcade due to Forcade threatening to kill President Richard M. Nixon in 1970.

THOMAS KING FORCADE, aka

ReNYairtel 1/23/74 and previous correspondence concerning subject's purchase of a shotgun in Phoenix, Arizona, on 2/19/71.

On 2/25/74 a Departmental attorney advised that the purchase of a shotgun in Arizona by subject, a resident of New York, involves possible violations of Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 922. The Departmental attorney noted that additional information would, of course, be required concerning the particulars of the above gun transaction, specifically, the identification used by Forcade when purchasing the weapon as well as the method of transporting same back to New York.

Concerning Forcade's identity, it is noted that Phoenix letter dated 12/24/73 disclosed that efforts to locate any reference to a legal change of name from Gary Kenneth Goodson to Thomas King Forcade in the records of Maricopa County Superior Court, Phoenix, Arizona, and other logical record repositories were unavailing. For the assistance of the Phoenix Office a review of subject's file at FBIHQ notes that New York summary report dated 2/4/72 captioned "Thomas King Forcade, aka Gary Kenneth Goodson, Tom Forcade; SM - NEW LEFT (EXTREMIST); Threat Against the President" (no copies to Phoenix Office), sets forth on page B that "A Decree of Change of Name was seen as identification for this passport, which was executed at Superior Court in Arizona (no locality mentioned) on 7/16/70, and indicated that his name had been changed from Gary Kenneth Goodson to Thomas King Forcade." This same report notes in paragraph six, page 2, that "A Decree of Change of Name, which was executed at Superior Court on 7/16/70, reflects that the subject's name has been legally changed from Gary Kenneth Goodson to Thomas King Forcade." The source of this information was noted as "Passport Records."

Letter to New York
Re: Thomas King Forcade, aka 100-469538

Inasmuch as "Passport Records" are indicated as the source of the above information, in the event Phoenix is unable to locate a record of this alleged legal change of name, that office should promptly request WFO to check passport records for any information concerning the basis for the name change. It is also noted that Phoenix letter dated 12/24/73 stated that records of Bohm's Sporting Goods, Phoenix, Arizona, indicated the serial number of the shotgun in question is 371173923, which number is at variance with the serial number indicated in New York airtel to Boston dated 9/27/73 (no copies to FBIHQ). New York immediately resolve this discrepancy.

Upon resolution of the above matters, New York promptly submit details of above purchase of shotgun by Forcade to FBIHQ in letterhead memorandum (LHM) form suitable for presentation to the Department for a prosecutive opinion.

ALL INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED IN NEW LEFT EXTREMIST ACTIVITY SHOULD BE CONSIDERED DANGEROUS BECAUSE OF THEIR KNOWN ADVOCACY AND USE OF EXPLOSIVES, REPORTED ACQUISITION OF FIREARMS AND INCENDIARY DEVICES, AND KNOWN PROPENSITY FOR VIOLENCE.

NOTE:

Forcade, a New York ADEX subject, is a well-known YIP activist and editor and producer of the Alternate Press Syndicate (formerly known as Underground Press Syndicate), 210 West 10th Street, New York City. He has a history of revolutionary associations and related violence including an 8/23/73 indictment under the National Firearms Act concerning possession and nonregistration of two unlawfully made incendiary devices. Subject was subsequently acquitted of this charge. Departmental attorney mentioned above is

For information of Tampa, New York is attempting to develop information substantiating subject's ownership of a Smith and Wesson .38 caliber revolver, model 49, Body Guard Special, Serial Number J64544. Information verified thus far indicates this weapon was sold to [redacted] at PAUL Jaeger Sporting Goods Inc., Jenkintown, Pa., on 2/4/70. [redacted] advised on 1/2/74, that he resold the weapon back to the same sporting goods store sometime between July and September, 1970, as he had small children in his house and did not wish the weapon to stay accessible to them.

A lead has previously been sent Philadelphia to verify resale of the weapon.

[redacted] also advised that FORCADE subsequently had the weapon in his possession at one time.

Files of the New York Office reflected that during 1972, the subject may have had this weapon in his possession during the Republican National Convention in Miami, Florida.

New York is attempting to determine if the subject is again in violation of the National Firearms Act, in particular the 1968 Federal Gun Control Act.

Will set out interview on FD-302.

Officer [redacted] West Station, Dade County Public Safety Department (DCPSD), advised that he had been an undercover officer during the period of the National Political Conventions held in Miami Beach, Florida, in 1972.

He advised that in connection with his undercover work, he had been acquainted with the activities going on in the Miami and Miami Beach area, and activities relative to the Youth International Party and the Zippies, which he described as an off-shoot of the Youth International Party.

Officer [redacted] recalled participating in the execution of some arrest warrants at a house he believed to be 3039 Mary Street, which house is located in the Coconut Grove area of Miami, Florida. He said these arrest warrants were executed on August 24, 1972, and that this address, 3039 Mary Street, had been known to him to be the "Zippie Headquarters." He said they went to this house to execute arrest warrants pertaining to [redacted] and CINDY ORNSTEEN, and that they also had a warrant as to THOMAS KING FORCADE. He said the arrest warrant as to FORCADE was not executed as FORCADE had been arrested late in the afternoon of August 24, 1972, for traffic charges and had been incarcerated in the Dade County Jail, Miami. He said in this connection, the warrant as to FORCADE was subsequently served on him in the jail later. He said that pursuant to the arrest warrants, [redacted] and CINDY ORNSTEEN were arrested. He said at the same time another individual, [redacted] was arrested when marijuana was found on his person. He advised that he, [redacted] had located a shotgun in a shed in the rear of the house and he described the shotgun as a regular, standard, pump type with about a 20 inch barrel. the shotgun as a 12 gauge Ithaca, Model 37, Serial Number 371128294, that this would have been the serial number of the shotgun described above by him as a regular pump type, 20 inch barrel shotgun. He stated that Officer [] was with him at the time that he had found this shotgun at the time they were executing the arrest warrants at 3039 Mary Street.

Officer [] said that at the time they executed the arrest warrants at the house on Mary Street he did not see any other weapons. However, he did say that about two weeks or so previous, at a different house on Mary Street, he was talking to THOMAS KING FORCADE. At this time he saw a shotgun and also a revolver, described by [] as a two inch, .38 caliber, in the possession of FORCADE. He said that FORCADE had told him, [] that the shotgun and revolver were his and that he had been to New York and had brought the shotgun and revolver back with him. Officer [] said that he thought FORCADE had taken a commercial plane to New York and back, and that the purpose of the trip had been to raise money.

[] indicated that he believed he had picked up the shotgun legally, as it was a weapon found as a result of the execution of the warrants of arrest. He advised the warrants as to both [] and CINDY ORNSTEEN had been executed, and that he, along with Officer [] and Officer [] had participated in this.

[] added that the arrest warrants were felony warrants and pertained to the possession of marijuana, and also the theft of a large, blown up picture of LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON which had been stolen from the Miami Beach Convention Hall at the time of the Democratic Convention.

He responded to a newspaper advertisement in the "Orlando Sentinel" during about the week of November 13, 1972. He went to the address, [redacted] Maitland, Florida, in order to look at the gun. The gun, to the best of his recollection, was advertised as a .38 caliber Bodyguard Special, being for sale for $85.00. He looked at the gun and got its description as a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson Bodyguard Special, having serial number J64544, and a two-inch barrel. He ran the gun and its description through the National Crime Information Center computer, getting no wanted record pertaining to the gun. He went back about the next day and purchased the gun, along with a shoulder holster and two boxes of ammunition, for a total of $90.00 cash. He gave [redacted] $85.00 for the gun and [redacted] gave him a receipt in the amount of $85.00, dated November 13, 1972, signed [redacted]

[redacted] The sale of the gun also included a shoulder holster. After purchasing the gun, [redacted] then asked him if he would like to buy two boxes of ammunition for $5.00. He then gave [redacted] an additional $5.00 for two boxes of .38 caliber ammunition.

[redacted] displayed a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver with a two-inch barrel, having serial number J64544.

A leaflet from the Smith and Wesson Company had a photograph of an identical gun on it and referred to it as a ".38 Bodyguard, Model 49." [redacted] also displayed a shoulder holster which he said came with the gun. [redacted] stated he did not recall the brand of ammunition he purchased with the gun and he no longer had it.

[redacted] Winter Park, Florida, furnished the following:

[redacted] attended both the Democratic and Republican National Conventions, held in Miami Beach, Florida, during June, 1972, and August, 1972.

THOMAS KING FORCADE was known as the head of the organization called the "Zippies," during both conventions, and their headquarters were located on Mary Street, in Coconut Grove, Florida.

Following the Republican National Convention, FORCADE came to Sanford, Florida, with his girl friend, CINDY ORNSTEIN. FORCADE and [redacted] utilized a rented small farmhouse on West Route 46, Sanford, Florida, from which they planned to get together a rock music band and produce a rock music record which they hoped to be a hit record.

FORCADE and his girl friend stayed a couple of weeks and then flew back to New York City. During his stay at the farm on this occasion, [redacted] did not see him with any gun. Several weeks later, in approximately early October, 1972, FORCADE and his girl friend returned to the farm in Sanford, Florida, in his girl friend's Camaro automobile, saying they had come from New York.

FORCADE and [redacted] planned to share expenses at the farm while producing the rock music record.

While making the record, FORCADE ran out of money during about the week of the 1972 national election. FORCADE had some property, such as a tape recorder and radios, and he talked about selling them in order to raise money, but he did not do so. FORCADE now owed [redacted] approximately $100.00 for his share of expenses and he suggested that he would give [redacted] a gun which was worth about $100.00 for his share of the expenses. FORCADE gave [redacted] a Smith and Wesson .38 caliber revolver, having a short barrel. It was in its Smith and Wesson box and its original wrapping paper. The gun appeared to be unfired and in new condition.

[] said the advertisement was answered by an individual who produced identification as being an Orlando, Florida, policeman. He said he was a rookie in training and he wanted the gun as an off-duty, personal side arm. [] could not recall this individual's name, but described him as a white male; American; being in about his early 20's possibly 22 or 23 years of age; approximately 5'11" tall; weighing about 145 pounds and having a thin build. He advised that it was black, with some sort of white trim, but he did not recall the tag number. He said it was probably a four-wheel drive pickup truck. He advised that he recalled it as being a Dodge pickup truck. [] said that FORCADE indicated that he had brought the gun with him only to sell it and raise money.

[] stated that during the time he was associated with FORCADE at the Democratic National Convention, and the Republican National Convention, in Miami Beach, Florida, he did not see FORCADE with this gun. He advised that the only gun he knew FORCADE to have during that time was a shotgun.

[] stated that during the Republican National Convention, FORCADE had been arrested while driving a truck on Miami Beach. He was arrested for not having a driver's license and put in jail.

On the same day, while FORCADE was still in jail, a raid was made at the "Zippie" headquarters on Mary Street, in Coconut Grove, Florida, by the Miami Metro Department of Public Safety Police, who made arrests pertaining to drugs and other charges involving individuals at the headquarters, at that time. FORCADE was not present. During this raid, FORCADE's belongings were searched and the police took with them FORCADE's shotgun. [] said that FORCADE Officer [] produced a "Weapon Work Sheet" which he stated he made out after a personal physical examination of the weapon. It was described as a 12 gauge Ithaca shotgun Model 37 (Police Spec), Serial Number 371128294. He stated this was the correct serial number and he corrected the property receipt itself to reflect this number. He stated he physically measured the barrel of the shotgun and it was 20 3/8 inches in length. He further described it as a hammerless type pump action manual.

He said, to the best of his recollection, the serial number had not been tampered with and thought if it had been he would have noticed it.

Officer [] West Station, DCPSD, stated he had been an undercover Officer during the period of the National Political Convention held in Miami Beach, Florida in 1972. He recalled participating in the execution of some arrest warrants at a house he believed to be the 3039 Mary Street address in the Coconut Grove area on 8/24/72 and that this house had been known to him to be the Zippie Headquarters. He said that they went to this house to execute arrest warrants pertaining to [] and CINDY ORNSTEEN and that they also had a warrant as to THOMAS KING FORCADE. He said the arrest as to FORCADE was not executed as FORCADE had been arrested late in the afternoon of 8/24/72 for traffic charges and had been in the Dade County Jail. He said the warrant was subsequently served on FORCADE in the jail later. He said that [] and CINDY ORNSTEEN were arrested and that another individual [] was arrested. File when Marijuana was found on him. He said that he [redacted] had located a shotgun in a shed in the rear of the house and he described the shotgun as a regular pump type 20 inch barrel shotgun. He said this was subsequently impounded by him. Officer [redacted] said that he did not see a revolver during the time of the arrest at the house, but that about two weeks or so previous, at a different house on Mary Street he was talking to THOMAS KING FORCADE. At this time he saw a shotgun and also a revolver described by [redacted] as a 20 inch .38 caliber in the possession of FORCADE. He stated that FORCADE had told him, [redacted] that the shotgun and revolver were his and that he had been to New York and had brought the shotgun and revolver back with him. Officer [redacted] said that he thought FORCADE had taken a commercial plane to New York and back and the purpose of the trip had been to raise money.

and consequently was not at the house. [] said the arrest warrants were felony warrants and pertained to the possession of Marijuana and also the theft of a large blown up picture of LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON which had been stolen from the Miami Beach Convention Hall at the time of the Democratic Convention.

[] said he saw the shotgun which had been found by officer [] and he described it as a normal type shotgun with about a 2 inch barrel. He said he saw no other weapons at the house at the time they made the arrests.

On 3/27/74, Officer [redacted] Dade County Public Safety Department (DCPSD), Miami, Florida, advised that to his recollection the felony arrest warrant which had been served on the subject while he was in the Dade County Jail pertained to the theft of the photograph of former President LYNDON B. On 3/27/74, a check of the records of the DCPSD indicated that case # 72-6162 pertained to the theft of the photograph or life size poster of former President LYNDON JOHNSON and that a warrant charging Grand Larceny had been served on the subject and that there was a notation "released before fingerprinted".

Regarding the Grand Larceny charge, [redacted] Clerk, Criminal Division, Dade County Circuit Court, Miami, Florida, advised that THOMAS KING FORCADE had been a co-defendant in case # 72-6162 for Grand Larceny resulting from the theft of a life size poster of former President LYNDON JOHNSON. This case was nol-prossed before Judge ROWE on 10/24/72, due to the fact that no representative of the state appeared in court.

ReNYtel, dated 4/17/74.

Referenced teletype noted the possibility of a passport violation on subject's part and requested FBI Headquarters consider obtaining passport jurisdiction in this matter from the State Department. Though not specifically stated, above appears to relate to subject's having obtained a passport under the name Thomas King Forcade, (which he claimed had been changed legally from Gary Kenneth Goodson on 7/16/70 in Maricopa County, Arizona, Superior Court) when in fact no such name change could be documented by review of pertinent records.

For the information of New York, Phoenix teletype, dated 4/19/74, notes that a recheck of the above files disclosed a petition for change of name from Gary Kenneth Goodson to Thomas King Forcade and Maricopa County, Arizona, Superior Court order granting petition for such change 7/16/70. FD-302 being submitted by Phoenix Office.

In view of the foregoing, no action being taken regarding request noted in referenced teletype.

ADMINISTRATIVE (Con't)

Subject has been previously identified as a leader of the Yips, and has been indicted in the past for violations of the National Firearms Act - Possession of Firebombs.

The Yip came into existence in 1968, for the purpose of staging a massive youth festival in late 1968, in Chicago, Illinois, to coincide with the Democratic National Convention (DNC). Leaders, in its early history, included JERRY CLYDE RUBIN, and ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN, both of whom were convicted (later overturned by U.S. Court of Appeals) of violation of the Anti-riot Laws during disturbance at the above 1968 DNC. In 7/70, Yip distributed "Yip Manifesto," which was basically an antiestablishment, revolutionary pronouncement urging the youth of the U.S., to repudiate competitive enterprise and establish institutions in favor of creating a utopian socialistic society permitting complete individual freedom of choice. Since its inception, when issues of considerable radical - revolutionary interest have arisen, Yip has demonstrated its ability to assemble large numbers of zealous individuals for demonstrations and protest, a number of which have resulted in violence and arrest. During a public speech in 4/72, when referring to the then forthcoming National political conventions, Yip leader RUBIN stated "We will dump the convention into the sea and use other methods than the electoral process to change the USA." [redacted] leading Yip theoretician and current Yip National leader, stated on 7/14/72, "Everywhere that the fascist pig NIXON shows his face, we will confront him, but not necessarily in a non-violent way." On 7/6/73, [redacted] was described as having a propensity for instigating and directing revolutionary arts of violence. b6 b7C

Apparently because of prosecutive action against RUBIN and HOFFMAN (who have drifted away from Yip) and others including [redacted] Yip leaders, are currently avoiding flamboyant revolutionary public statements. The organization continues, however, to engage in demonstrations, during which individual Yip anarchistic activist and leaders advocate violent action and confrontations with authorities in an attempt to build revolutionary fervor among young people. Examples of the activity took place during the 8/72 Republican National Convention (RNC) and the 7/4/73 Yip demonstration in Washington, D.C. During the RNC, THOMAS KING FORCADE and CINDY

ELIZABETH ORNSTEEN the members of a Yip faction calling itself Yip-Zippie, were arrested on 8/23/72, in Miami Beach, Florida, and charged with violation of National Firearms Act for possession, unlawful manufacture and non-registration of firebombs. Trial judge subsequently rendered a direct verdict of acquittal in this matter based on the grounds that no reasonable interpretation could be made, bringing the evidence within the scope of the National Firearms Act. Yip is currently headquartered in NYC.

ReBulet indicated that the Department was interested in pursuing subject's activities as a possible violation of Title 18, USC, Section 922, which pertains to violations of the National Firearms Act.

A report is being submitted in lieu of an LHM, due to the complexity of the case. NY notes upon reviewing prior reports and LHM's that the Bureau is not in receipt of all pertinent information concerning the subject. A review of file number C236678 on GARY KENNETH GOODSON at Maricopa County Superior Court, Phoenix, disclosed a Petition For Change of Name was filed on July 2, 1970, by GOODSON's attorney [redacted] Phoenix, Arizona.

b6
b7C

Petition indicated that GOODSON was born on September 11, 1945, and that his birth certificate bears the name of GARY KENNETH GOODSON.

GOODSON indicated he was a professional writer and has been using the name of THOMAS KING FORCADE both professionally in his writing and his personal affairs and business for the past three years prior to filing of the petition.

GOODSON registered the name of THOMAS KING FORCADE as a trade name with the Clerk of the Superior Court of Maricopa County, Arizona, approximately two and one-half years prior to the filing of this petition.

GOODSON also indicated since assuming and using the name of THOMAS KING FORCADE, he encountered certain difficulty and confusion in both his professional and personal affairs from the fact his legal name is different from his assumed name.

GOODSON assumed the name of THOMAS KING FORCADE, which is not fictitious but is, in fact, the name of his great grandfather who is now deceased.

GOODSON further indicated he would avoid difficulties and confusion that he has encountered if his assumed name of THOMAS KING FORCADE be made by the court to be his legal name.

Judge EDWIN THURSTON on July 16, 1970, granted the Petition For Change of Name from GARY KENNETH GOODSON to THOMAS KING FORCADE.
